2020 OEA Minority Leadership Training Program

Educators Standing Up and Answering the Call

Saturday, June 13, 2020

Virtual Training
10:00 AM – 12:30 PM

The OEA Minority Leadership Training Program (MLTP) provides participants, particularly OEA members of color, with the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully serve as leaders at all levels of the Association--local, district, state and national. The program includes leadership development experiences and support throughout the year to develop each participant’s ability to match their leadership interests with leadership opportunities to positively impact OEA's growth as an inclusive and diverse organization.

We hope that you will join us!

Topics

Self-Care
• This session will address the important role that self-care plays in strengthening your overall personal wellbeing.

Unconference
• The OEA MLTP Unconference is an informal experience to exchange information and ideas about leadership in the association.

Future Topics
• Participants will identify topics for future OEA MLTP training.

Due to the current Coronavirus (COVID-19) Pandemic and restrictions for in-person events, the full OEA MLTP convened in partnership with NEA is postponed. We will have a modified program June 13, 2020.
