

Welcome to the Virtual OEA Professional Learning Seminar: Restorative Practices Basics

One Ashland Graduate Credit Available

Learn about the emerging Social Science of Restorative Practices and how to strengthen relationships and social connections between individuals in your communities.

Wednesday, July 29; Thursday, July 30;
Thursday, August 6; Friday, August 7

All class sessions will take place via Zoom

Each class session will begin at 9 am and conclude at 12:30 pm. You must be able to attend all online class hours and one, virtual work session with a small group of your colleagues to participate in the class.

During this sixteen-hour training you will:

Build relationships, respond to conflict, and problem-solve collaboratively using a restorative framework.

Participate in circles with your colleagues.

Learn to facilitate restorative circles.

Learn how to set high expectations for students and colleagues while being supportive.

Learn techniques for building social capital, resolving social problems, and responding when harm occurs through a restorative lens.

Practice providing direct feedback and asking questions that promote accountability.

Discover effective methods to resolve common conflicts.

Discover how circles create positive learning environments.

Be prepared to facilitate circles virtually or in person when you begin your school year!

To register for the OEA Professional Learning Seminar: Restorative Practices Basics, please click the link below.

<https://www.ohea.org/oea-professional-learning-seminar-restorative-practices-basics/>

For questions, please contact Daria DeNoia at denoiad@ohea.org and Makia Burns at burnsm@ohea.org

