LOCAL ASSOCIATION DELEGATE ELECTIONS: It is important that you immediately review the election materials outlining the procedures for election of delegates and alternates from your local association who will serve as representatives to the 2022-23 OEA Representative Assemblies. (Materials are available on the OEA Website).

October 10, 2022 is the deadline for local associations to conduct their local OEA Representative Assembly delegate elections. If the delegates/alternates were elected at a general membership meeting in accordance with the OEA elections manual, an official copy of the meeting minutes reflecting the outcome of the election must accompany the official election report form.

October 15, 2022 is the deadline for submission of names of elected local delegates and alternates to the OEA Representative Assemblies as required by OEA Constitution/Bylaws.

Elections conducted after October 10, 2022 and election report forms returned after October 15 must include a letter addressed to the OEA Credentials Committee explaining the reason for not meeting the deadline. Please email the letter to oeaa@ohea.org. The Credentials Committee will determine the official seating of delegates from locals that that did not meet the deadlines. Additionally, all locals with outstanding dues transmittal issues will need to meet with the Director of Membership and the OEA Credentials Committee to determine delegate seating proportionate to the amount of dues paid. Please provide your local election committee with a copy of the Regulations for Election of Local Association Delegates for purposes of constructing a ballot and conducting the local election (available on the OEA Website).
