

OEA

OHIO EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

In collaboration with OEA, the OAESP is offering FREE ServSafe Food Handler Certification!!

This FREE ServSafe training is open to OEA ESP members. Preference will be given to OAESP members. There are 30 scholarships available so sign up soon!

The ServSafe® Food Handler Certificate verifies basic food safety knowledge. By taking the ServSafe® Food Handler Course and Exam you'll gain a complete understanding of safe food handling procedures. You'll have greater confidence and knowledge to properly prepare meals for students in your school cafeteria.

The ServSafe® Food Handler Course and Exam is accessed online with 60 days to complete. The exam consists of 40 multiple choice questions in which you must earn a score of 75% or higher. Upon successful completion of the accredited ServSafe® Food Handler course, the employee will receive a Certificate of Achievement from the National Restaurant Association. After certification, you shall be eligible to enroll in the ServSafe® Manager course. Certification is valid in Ohio for 3 years.

If you handle food in a school cafeteria setting, it is advisable to have a ServSafe® Food Handler Certification.

Participation requires:

- Commitment to course completion
- Computer, Laptop, or Netbook (with sound)
- High speed Internet Access
- Adobe Reader®

The OEA and OAESP are dedicated to supporting your professional development by providing this quality program at no cost to you!
